Eligibility

The meeting is considered eligible at its defined level if it complies with Art. 30: "Requirements for eligibility" (see annex page).

Those points will be evaluated from the signature of this agreement and with the observation of the whole organising process, until the end of the event.

Rights & Duties

The Meeting Organiser of certifies that on the basis of the information described above (page1), he undertakes to comply with the EAP Standards & Regulations.

As an approved meeting of the defined sector, level and appropriate budget the MO will ensure that the good image of the EAP is kept high.

For its part, the EAP undertakes to promote and support the meeting by means, tools and resources that are specific to it.

It will do so in particular through the channels at its disposal, mainly the website, social networks and other communication platforms.

Access to all the resources and useful information is made available to the Meeting Organiser via the Member access of the extranet (password proected).

The Starter-kit is also part of the "equipment" the EAP provides to all its members.

The reciprocal collaboration clauses come into force upon signatures of the Meeting Organiser in behalf of its organising committee, the EAP President and the EAP Treasurer and after payment of the EAP Membership fee.
