Eligibility

The meeting is considered eligible at its defined level if it complies with Art. 30: "Requirements for eligibility" (see appendix pages 3 and 4).

Those items will be evaluated from the signature of this agreement and with the observation of the whole organising process, until the end of the event.

In case the meeting is not in sector 1 "EAP-Elite", some items may not be considered.

Rights & Duties

The Meeting Organiser (MO) of certifies that on the basis of the information described above (see page1), he undertakes to comply with the EAP Standards & Regulations.

As an approved meeting of the defined sector, area and appropriate budget the MO will ensure that the good image of the EAP is kept high.

For its part, the EAP undertakes to promote and support the meeting by means, tools and resources that are specific to it.

It will do so in particular through the channels at its disposal, mainly the website, social networks and other communication platforms.

Access to all the resources and useful information is made available to the MO via the Member access of the extranet (password protected).

The Starter-kit is also part of the "equipment" the EAP provides to all its members.

The reciprocal collaboration clauses come into force upon signatures of the MO in behalf of its organising committee, the EAP President and the EAP Treasurer and after payment of the annual EAP Membership fee.
